- 10.304 Working foremen/assistant working foremen assignments shall be posted in accordance with Article 18. - 11.100 New employees in the bargaining unit are considered to be in probationary status and shall have no seniority for the first 120 calendar days of their continuous employment.
- 11.200 The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to wages, hours, discipline and other conditions of employment, but not for discharge. The Employer shall have no obligation to re-employ an employee who is discharged during the probationary period. The Union’s representation of probationary employees for discipline shall be subject to Article 11.300.
- 11.300 A probationary employee may not resort to the Grievance Procedure for relief if the employee is discharged or disciplined except for union activity.
- 11.400 A new employee will be evaluated by the immediate supervisor using the “Evaluation Report Form” at the end of two months of employment and again two weeks prior to the completion of the probationary period. The supervisor and the probationary employee will discuss the evaluation and it will be signed by both before being submitted to the Human Resources Office. Signing of the evaluation report does not necessarily mean agreement with the report, but designates that the employee has seen the document.
- 11.500 A decision will be made prior to the completion of the probationary period to retain or release the new employee. The employee will be notified in writing prior to or on the last working day of the probationary period. If the employee is not notified by the last day of her/his probationary period regarding retention or release, she/he will be considered a permanent employee.
- 11.600 When an employee successfully completes the probationary period, she/he shall be entered on the seniority list and shall rank for seniority from the date of hire. There shall be no seniority among probationary employees.
- 11.700 No employee may bid on another job during the probationary period, unless no qualified seniored employee applies.

- 11.800 During the probationary period, a new employee is eligible to use sick leave units or personal leave units as they accrue, but will not be eligible to use vacation.
- 11.900 If the employee is to be released, the employee will be paid for accrued vacation units but will not be paid for unused sick leave units.

ARTICLE 12.000 DISCIPLINE

- 12.100 An employee shall be disciplined (including warnings, reprimands, suspensions, reductions in rank, discharge, or other actions of a disciplinary nature) only for just cause. Any such discipline shall be subject to the grievance procedure. The specific grounds forming the basis for disciplinary action will be made available to the employee and the Union in writing. An employee shall not discipline nor dismiss any other employee but working foremen/assistant working foremen may report employee activities which could result in disciplinary action. Any disciplinary action must commence within 10 working days of the alleged incident following the day on which the Employer had knowledge, or reasonably should have had knowledge of the facts which resulted in the discipline. For a criminal investigation, the Union will be notified and the 10 working day period shall be extended to 30 calendar days.
- 12.200 Any employee shall be entitled to have present a representative of the Union during any meeting which leads to disciplinary action. When a request for such representation is made, no action shall be taken with respect to the employee until such representation of the Union is present. Should disciplinary action likely occur at a given meeting, the employee shall be advised immediately of said possibility and be advised by the Employer of the right to representation under this provision of the Agreement.
- 12.300 NOTICE AND HEARING
- The Employer shall give written notice to the employee and to the Steward, with a copy to the President of the Union by mail, of any written discipline, suspension, or discharge action, said notice to state the specific reasons for such action. Should the Union desire a fact-finding hearing on a written discipline, suspension, or discharge, it shall request said hearing with the Contract Administrator within 10 working days of the notice of disciplinary action and said hearing shall be scheduled at a time agreeable to the parties but within 10 working days after the request for the hearing. The 10 working day period may be extended by mutual written agreement between the parties.
- 12.400 The Employer and the Union recognize the objective of corrective discipline for employees. The corrective procedure may result in the suspension or discharge of an employee if the progressive severity of the disciplinary actions taken by supervision does not bring about the desired response from the employee.
- 12.401 Step One. A written warning shall be given to the employee detailing the reason for the action. A copy will be placed in the employee's personnel file and a copy shall be given to the Union.

- 12.402 Step Two. A written reprimand shall be given to the employee detailing the reason for the action and the employee's immediate supervisor shall place the original in the employee's personnel file that such a reprimand was given.
- 12.403 Step Three. A written suspension without pay or a working suspension with pay for not more than three days shall be given to the employee and the original of the disciplinary document shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.
- 12.404 Step Four. An employee shall be subject to an additional written suspension without pay for not more than five days or discharge, and the original of the disciplinary document shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

12.500 The Employer may discipline an employee by suspension without pay or by discharge without any prior warning, and without utilization of the corrective discipline procedures established in this Article, if the Employer, or its representatives, determine, based upon the preponderance of reasonable evidence, to charge that the employee is guilty of gross misconduct, insubordination, sabotage, theft, assault upon another employee or a supervisor, or the commission of any act or acts which constitute a felony under State or Federal law.

12.600 GRIEVANCE ON SUSPENSION OR DISCHARGE

A grievance on a suspension or discharge may be initiated at Step Two of the grievance procedure no later than 15 working days after the suspension or discharge occurs.

12.700 USE OF PAST RECORD

The Employer will not take into consideration, in applying the corrective discipline procedures set forth in this Article, any previous disciplinary action of record in an employee's personnel file which occurred more than 24 months prior to any disciplinary action that is taken on a current charge. Upon written request by the employee any record that cannot be considered in effectuating the provision of corrective discipline shall be removed from the file of the employee and destroyed.

- 12.701 Campus Facilities/Business Services employees that have a Discipline at Step Two or higher in their file shall be prohibited from applying for open positions for a period of no more that 12 months from the date the most recent disciplinary action took place.

In the event that the disciplinary action is proceeding through the grievance procedure, the Bargaining Unit member shall not be prevented from bidding on any open positions.

ARTICLE 13.000 COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

13.100 A complaint is an informal claim by an employee, employees or group of employees in the bargaining unit, or by the Union, of improper, unfair, arbitrary or discriminatory treatment. Any employee in the bargaining unit may present and discuss his complaint either with or without a representative or agent of the Union. Similarly, a representative or agent of the Union may present and discuss a complaint on behalf of any employee or group of employees with a representative of the Employer or the institutional officer to whom she/he is responsible and shall be entirely informal. Any settlement, withdrawal, or disposition of a complaint at this informal stage shall not constitute a binding precedent in the settlement of similar complaints or grievances. Any settlement shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 14.000 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

14.100 Definition of Grievance: A grievance is a claim or complaint by an employee or a group of employees, or the Union on its own behalf about the interpretation, application, or violation of the provisions of this Agreement, a condition of employment or mutually agreed upon practices by the parties; provided that it is initiated within the 15 working day period following the day on which the employee had knowledge, or reasonably should have had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the grievance.

14.200 GROUP GRIEVANCE

A group grievance is a grievance which concerns more than one employee and involves a common fact situation and the same provision(s) of the Agreement. In such a case it shall be sufficient for one employee to file the grievance on behalf of all named employees. In the event that the group grievance involves employees from more than one department or area, it may be filed by the Union at Step Two of the grievance procedure, by initiating it with the Contract Administrator.

14.300 Step One. Any employee with a grievance may discuss the matter with the employee's immediate supervisor. If the matter is not resolved through oral discussions, the grievance shall be reduced to writing by the employee and/or Union representative and filed with the supervisor. Such grievance shall set forth the facts, including dates and the provisions of the Agreement, condition of employment or mutually agreed upon practices reduced to writing by the parties; that are alleged to have been violated, and the remedy desired. The supervisor then has five days in which to answer the grievant in writing, with a copy to be sent to the Union. (If the grievance involves a disciplinary action or termination, the grievance will go directly to Step Two.) If a grievance does not involve an immediate supervisor or is outside the jurisdiction of the supervisor, it shall be initiated with the Contract Administrator at Step Two. Failure to provide a written answer within the specified time limits shall permit automatic advancement to the next step of the grievance procedure.

14.400 Step Two. (For grievances initiated at Step Two, the "Vice President" shall also mean "Contract Administrator.")

14.401 If the grievant is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step One, the grievant may appeal the grievance to the Office of the appropriate Vice President, or the next supervisory level, as the case may be, within five working days after the receipt of the response from Step One. Such appeal shall state the reason(s) why the Step One disposition is not satisfactory and shall include copies of the original written grievance and the response to the grievance.

14.402 The Vice President shall arrange a mutually agreeable time for meeting between the grievant and the grievant's representative, the Vice President and/or his designee, if requested, within 10 days after submission of the appeal. Following such meeting, the Vice President will render a written decision on the matter within five days, providing a copy to the Union.

Failure to provide a written answer within the specified time limits shall permit automatic advancement to the next step of the grievance procedure.

- 14.500 Step Three. In the event that the response at Step Two is not satisfactory and the Union wishes to move the grievance to Step Three, it shall, notify the Employer within 15 working days from the date of the Employer's response to Step Two. The Union will request either a Step Three meeting or a mediation hearing. If mediation is requested, the Employer shall respond within 10 working days as to the decision to mediate.

If the parties mutually agree to go to mediation with a State of Michigan Mediator, it is clearly understood that the mediator's role is to assist the parties in resolving the dispute and nothing done by the mediator is binding on either the Employer or the Union. The discussions by the parties and/or the mediator at this step may not be mentioned and/or used in arbitration if the grievance goes to arbitration. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement in mediation, the parties shall document the outcome and shall reactivate the grievance at Step Four of the grievance process.

Within 30 calendar days of moving the grievance to either the Step Three meeting or a mediation hearing, the parties will meet for the purpose of attempting to resolve the dispute(s).

The Employer shall respond to the Union in writing within 10 working days after the Step Three meeting. Failure to provide a written answer within the specified time limits shall permit automatic advancement to the next step of the grievance procedure.

- 14.600 Step Four. If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step Three, the grievance may be submitted to the American Arbitration Association for a binding decision. The Union will submit a Demand for Arbitration to the American Arbitration Association, with a copy of the Demand sent to the Contract Administrator, within 45 calendar days after receiving the Step Three response.

14.601 Neither party shall be permitted to assert in such arbitration proceedings any ground or to rely on any evidence not previously disclosed to the other party. The arbitrator shall not have power to alter, add to or subtract from, the terms of the Agreement. Both parties agree to be bound by the award of the arbitrator, and agree that judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

14.602 The decision of the award shall be binding upon the Union, the Employer, and the employees affected thereby. The cost of arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties. Expenses for witnesses, however, shall be borne by the party who calls them.

14.900 MISCELLANEOUS CONDITIONS

14.901 Grievances shall be presented and handled in such a manner as not to interfere with the day-to-day orderly conduct of the University. All hearings and meetings shall normally be scheduled so as to avoid any interference with working hours, but, when necessary, participants will be released from other obligations.

- 14.902 The term “days” when used in this Article shall mean working days (between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.). Time limits provided in this Article shall be strictly observed but may be extended by mutual written agreement.
- 14.903 Any claim or grievance arising during the term of this Agreement may be processed through the grievance procedure until resolution.
- 14.904 Failure on the part of the employee to comply with the deadlines specified in the grievance procedure will result in forfeiture of her/his right to grieve this particular item and the grievance shall be withdrawn.
- 14.905 All grievances and responses will be personally delivered to the appropriate parties and recipient will sign and date the document. If the appropriate parties cannot be located within the allotted response or filing time, the Contract Administrator will receive the document. She/he must sign and date the document and will be held responsible for forwarding the document to the appropriate parties as soon as possible.
- 14.906 Nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting the right of any employee to file a grievance and have a grievance adjusted without intervention of the Union, provided the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and provided that a member of the Union’s Grievance Committee has been given the opportunity to be present at such adjustment.
- 14.907 A Union supported grievance shall be signed by the Union President, Grievance Chairperson, or Uniserv Director.
- 14.908 There shall be no reprisals of any kind by the Employer taken against any employee(s) or her/his steward, any member of the Grievance Committee, or any other participant in the grievance.
- 14.909 All documents, communications, and records dealing with the process of a grievance shall be filed separately from the Personnel/Administrative files of the participants.

ARTICLE 15.000 SENIORITY

- 15.100 Seniority shall be defined as the length of continuous service with the Employer, as a member of the bargaining unit, since the most recent date of hire. Seniority will commence after successful completion of the probationary period as herein provided. In the event that more than one individual employee has the same starting date of work, position on the seniority list shall be determined by casting lots. Seniority shall be applied only as specifically set forth in this Agreement. No employee may be displaced, bumped, or laid off by a less senior employee.
- 15.200 Probationary employees shall have no seniority until the completion of the probationary period at which time their seniority shall revert to their first date of work.
- 15.300 Part-time employees shall accrue seniority on a pro-rata basis. For those employees scheduled to work 34 hours or less each week, a separate seniority list will be kept. Seniority will be determined by the “hours scheduled to work” not by hours actually worked. Part-time employees may exercise their layoff/recall rights in accordance with Article 16.000, but are restricted only to those positions held by part-time employees.

15.400 LOSS OF SENIORITY

An employee's seniority shall terminate for any one of the following reasons:

- 15.401 If an employee voluntarily terminates his/her employment.
- 15.402 If an employee retires in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 15.403 If an employee is discharged and not reinstated.
- 15.404 If an employee fails to report from layoff when recalled in accordance with this Agreement.
- 15.405 If an employee is absent for three consecutive working days without notifying his/her immediate supervisor, without a contractually approved excuse.
- 15.406 If an employee has been laid off for a period of time exceeding their accrued seniority at the time of lay off.
- 15.407 If an employee has been ill or disabled (Article 19.201) for two years or has exceeded their accrued seniority, whichever is more.
- 15.408 If an employee has been on worker's compensation on an unpaid leave status for five years or has exceeded their accrued seniority at the time the unpaid leave began, whichever is more.

15.500 RETENTION OF SENIORITY

Seniority is retained but does not accrue for periods of time set forth below:

- 15.501 Period of layoff, but not to exceed accrued seniority at the time of layoff.
 - 15.502 Unpaid leave of absence, unless accrual is specified in this Agreement for the specific leave.
 - 15.503 Transfer outside the bargaining unit to another position in the University, if the employee returns to the bargaining unit within twelve months.
 - 15.504 Long term disability leaves, but not to exceed accrued seniority at time of leave or two years, whichever is more.
- 15.600 Ten-month employees, full and part-time, shall be treated the same as 12-month employees, i.e., the two months an employee is off during the summer will accrue as time worked.
- 15.700 No employee shall be required to bump anyone who is scheduled to work less hours per week than the employee was at the time of layoff.

- 15.800 There shall be no super seniority for any employee in this unit. This provision includes Union officers and stewards as well as working foremen.
- 15.900 If an employee is using paid leave accruals or compensatory time to make up the difference between the amount covered by worker's compensation and the employee's regular pay, seniority will continue to accrue and employee shall be considered to be on paid leave.

ARTICLE 16.000 LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 16.100 The Employer shall notify and meet with the Union prior to implementing any layoff. Employees to be laid off for an indefinite period of time will have at least 14 calendar days written notice of layoff. The Employer will send a list of the employees laid off to the Union on the same date notices are issued to the employees.
- 16.200 When there is a decrease in workforce, temporary employees will be displaced prior to any bargaining unit employee being laid off. When there is a decrease in the number of Bargaining Unit positions, Bargaining Unit employees are to be affected by order of seniority within their respective divisions (Secretarial/Clerical and Campus Facilities/Business Services) by office/department, paygrade and job title, and affected employees may exercise their seniority according to the following order, provided the employee meets the stated minimum qualifications of the position and would be able, with a minimal amount of training, to perform the work.
- 16.201 Transfer to a vacant position, if any, within the same pay grade.
- 16.202 Replace the non-senior or least senior employee, if any, in the same pay grade.
- 16.203 Transfer to a vacant position, if any, within the next lower pay grade.
- 16.204 Replace the non-senior or least senior employee, if any, in the next lower pay grade and succeeding lower paygrades.
- 16.205 Be laid off.
- 16.300 In applying the procedure as hereinabove provided, in no case shall a displaced employee replace an employee who has greater Bargaining Unit seniority. A displaced employee is one who was least senior and bumped to a position in a lower paygrade or an employee returning from an unpaid leave of absence where their former position was not guaranteed. Such employees shall be considered displaced and so retain recall rights to their original paygrade for no more than two years following the bump or return from an unpaid leave of absence.
- 16.400 Employees displaced or laid off shall be recalled to their regular paygrade, or a lower paygrade, in the order of their seniority, provided the employee meets the stated minimum qualifications of the position and would be able, with a minimal amount of training, to perform the work. In the event that a regular opening occurs in a paygrade and there are no employees on layoff or displaced from such paygrade who are eligible to return to the paygrade, such opening shall be filled in accordance with the regular job vacancy provisions of this Agreement.
- 16.500 Notice of recall shall be sent to the employee at the employee's last known address by registered or certified mail. The notice shall state the position title, rate of pay, paygrade, office/department, and date of which the recalled employee is expected to return. A copy of the recall letter shall be sent to the President of the Union. An employee so notified must indicate her/his acceptance of recall within five working days after receipt of notification from the Employer. The employee must report to work within 10 working days from the date of mailing notice of recall.

Failure to accept recall from layoff or report to work, provided the position offered was at the paygrade or comparable compensation grade level which the employee held at the time of layoff, terminates seniority, recall rights, and employment with the Employer.

- 16.600 A laid off or 10-month employee shall, upon application at her/his option, be granted top priority status in their respective temporary pool according to her/his seniority. Said employee's seniority shall accrue while on active employment status.
- 16.700 Laid off employees may continue their health, dental and vision insurance benefits by paying the regular monthly per subscriber group rate premium for such benefits to the Employer, subject to the conditions of the carrier and up to a total of two years after layoff.
- 16.800 Employees shall retain recall rights for a period no longer than the number of continuous years of employment in the bargaining unit which the employee had acquired at the time of layoff.
- 16.900 Notices regarding all bargaining unit position postings shall be sent to all laid off employees by U.S. Mail on the same date of the initial posting.

ARTICLE 17.000 PAYGRADES, POSITIONS AND RECLASSIFICATIONS

- 17.100 The Union and the Employer shall negotiate rates for any current or modified paygrades and/or positions.
- 17.200 The rates for new positions shall be in conformity with the rates for positions of similar kind or class. When a new position is established, the Union and the Employer shall meet to negotiate the paygrade placement of the position and the rate of pay. The Union shall respond to any revisions or modifications to job descriptions within 10 working days.
- 17.300 The Employer and the Union agree that positions should be appropriately classified for the purpose of compensation. Both parties further recognize that duties and responsibilities within an assignment may change over a period of time. Such changes may require an update of the job description (Article 27.000) or warrant a complete review of the position.
- 17.400 Within 15 working days of the reassignment and/or change in duties, the employee will meet with her/his supervisor. Together they will develop a revised job description identifying the new tasks along with any other changes from the current job description. At this time the Reclassification Study Form will also be completed.
- 17.500 The newly revised job description will be completed within 15 working days. The new job description and supporting documents will be submitted to the appropriate Vice President or Dean who will review the data.
- 17.600 The Vice President/Dean will review said job description and forward it to the Contract Administrator or designee within 15 working days of receipt of the new job description or recommend further revision. If revisions are recommended by the Vice President/Dean, the job description will be returned to the employee and supervisor and shall be resubmitted within 10 working days.

- 17.700 Within 20 working days of receipt of the revised, dated, and signed job description and all supporting documents, the Contract Administrator will make a recommendation of appropriate paygrade. The Contract Administrator will return the recommendation to the Vice President/Dean for a final decision and implementation.

- 17.800 Should the employee disagree with the recommendation, the appeal will be governed by Article 14 (Grievance Procedure).

- 17.900 Any employee whose position is upgraded will receive the pay rate retroactive to the date the additional duties and/or responsibilities were assumed.

Should a position be reduced to a lower paygrade, any employee holding such a position shall be allowed to maintain that job. The employee shall be paid the higher rate of pay for a period of one year unless said employee successfully bids out of that position.

- 17.1000 With mutual agreement these time limits can be waived.

ARTICLE 18.000 VACANCIES, JOB POSTINGS, TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS

- 18.100 A vacancy is an additional position, a newly created position, or a position from which an employee has retired, died, bid out, quit, permanently dismissed, or taken a leave of absence which does not or no longer guarantees a reinstatement to a position. When a vacancy occurs upgrading or other movement to such vacancy shall be accomplished in the following manner. Nothing contained in this Section is intended to prevent the Employer from making necessary changes in positions, eliminating, or adding positions or creating new positions. If any changes have been made to the job description, the Association shall be given a copy of the new description and will respond to any revisions or modifications within 10 working days.

- 18.200 Job vacancies shall be announced by the Human Resources Office by posting said vacancies via e-mail and Employer bulletin boards for five full working days following the announcement. Sufficient copies of the posting shall be supplied to the Union prior to start date of posting, to permit posting on the Union's Bulletin Boards. The notice of vacancy shall contain the following information.

- A. Date of posting.
- B. Date the posting period expires.
- C. Office/Department where vacancy exists.
- D. Paygrade.
- E. Rate of compensation.
- F. Basic function and responsibility.
- G. Minimum qualifications.

- H. Number of hours in the workweek and assigned hours to be worked.
- I. Starting date.
- J. Title of immediate supervisor.
- K. Grant funding status.

Any tests that are to be administered will be done by the Human Resources Office or the hiring authority and shall be listed on the official posting.

- 18.300 Any employee, providing she/he meets the stated minimum qualifications of the position and would be able, with minimal amount of training, to perform the work, may bid for the position opening by filing a written application with the Human Resources Office during the five working day posting period. Applications will be treated as confidential information. Probationary employees or employees not in the same division as the position posting may apply only if no employee with seniority within that division applies.
- 18.400 The Employer will not fill the position nor interview applicants from outside the bargaining unit until all members of the bargaining unit who bid during the posting period have been interviewed by the employing supervisor.
 - 18.401 The Campus Facilities Department will submit a weekly report to the Union as to the use of Pool Employees within the Department.
- 18.500 For employees of the Secretarial/Clerical Division, the supervisor will make a selection of the applicant which she/he believes to be the best qualified. The selection of the best qualified person shall be based upon consideration of such factors as a candidate's length of employment at the University, previous work history (including records of attendance, discipline, and work performance), interpersonal skills and other skills measuring these factors against the particular requirements set by the hiring department and the University for the job involved.
- 18.600 For employees of the Campus Facilities/Business Services Division, the selection of the applicant shall be the most senior employee applying for the position who meets the minimum requirements, subject to Article 18.601.
 - 18.601 The opportunity to fill a posted job vacancy shall first be given to the most senior, qualified employee, in the same classification as the vacancy that is working a different shift (including weekends). The classifications are custodial, custodial specialists, grounds, maintenance, HVAC, plumbers, electricians and locksmith. This procedure shall repeat until there are no more shift changes. The position shall then be posted per Article 18.100 and all bid sheets will be turned into the Human Resources Department.

This provision does not prevent custodians from bidding on same shift positions because custodial work areas are bid whenever a permanent vacancy occurs.

Employees who are selected under the provision above will be given a trial period not to exceed five working days to determine whether they are still desirous of the position. It is agreed that no such employee will be given a trial period of less than five working days, unless the bargaining unit member opts to waive this trial period in writing, under this provision. A candidate appointed to a new position shall have the right to return to his/her prior position within the five working day trial period.

- 18.700 A selection shall be made within 10 working days after the posting period (this may be extended by mutual agreement). The Employer shall promote from among those employees, except when there are no qualified bidders who meet the minimum qualifications. If the job is not filled in the manner prescribed above, the Employer may hire outside applicants. The Employer will notify the Union President when outside applications will be accepted.
- 18.800 The Employer will provide to the Union (for each vacancy filled) the name, hire date, step, and paygrade of the employee filling each vacancy. The position may be filled temporarily pending a permanent assignment in accordance with Article 10.
- 18.900 The successful applicant will be notified by the Human Resources Office or the hiring department of the position offer. All applicants not selected for the position vacancy will be notified directly by the Human Resources Office or the hiring department within five working days following the date of selection. Upon request to the Human Resources Office, unsuccessful applicants will be informed of the reason(s) why she/he was not selected.
- 18.1000 Subject to a mutually agreeable extension, normally the successful applicant will assume new duties within two weeks.
- 18.1100 Employees who are accepted under the provision above will be given a trial period not to exceed 10 working days to determine whether they are still desirous of the position. It is agreed that no such employee will be given a trial period of less than 10 working days under this provision. A candidate appointed to a new position shall have the right to return to the former position.
- 18.1200 If an employee accepts a position in a lower paygrade, the employee's pay will be reduced to the equivalent step in the lower pay grade.
- 18.1300 All of the provisions contained in this Section shall be subject to the guidelines and goals of the Employer's Affirmative Action Plan and Article 3.000 of this Agreement.
- 18.1400 Temporary Replacement for Leave of Absence
- 18.1401 Only one employee presently working may transfer to a position which is temporarily vacant because of an approved leave of absence. The time of the transfer will be limited to the allowed time of the leave of absence.
- 18.1402 Application procedures will be the same as for all other vacancies.
- 18.1403 The employee selected for the vacancy may revert back to their old position only with the approval of the immediate supervisor. If approval cannot be obtained, the employee may still take the temporary position only with the understanding that after completion of the temporary assignment (if no vacancy exists) he/she will be placed on layoff with no bumping rights but will retain recall rights and seniority as specified in the contract.
- 18.1404 For purposes of layoff/recall, the employee will retain her/his former classification level.
- 18.1405 The pay will be determined in the same manner as any other promotion or transfer.

- 18.1406 All other conditions of employment and rights as specified in the contract (including seniority accrual) will remain in effect for any employee who accepts a temporary assignment.
- 18.1407 If for some reason the employee on approved leave does not return, the position will be posted.
- 18.1408 If the employee who held the temporary position does not assume the position on a permanent basis, she/he shall be placed on layoff status with rights of recall but not bumping rights.

The signature of the working foreman on the evaluation form indicates that he/she was present at the evaluation interview.

Community College courses required for a Secretarial Science Associate degree or any courses offered through a certification program shall qualify for the tuition grant.

By choosing a primary care physician and using Level One, you receive benefits with small co-pays, no deductibles and no paperwork. employee at the commencement of the period of continuous total disability. Retirement contributions will continue in this current plan. In no event will the sum of the monthly income benefit exceed $9,000. This plan is for disability related to illness or injury which exceeds 90 calendar days.
